From: Steve Mansbridge – Manager of Community Lifesaving

Date: 29 June 2007

Subject: New Trainer & Assessor Support Officer

I would like to introduce you to the new Trainer & Assessor Support Officer his name is Nick Bugeja. As you will be aware this is a new role for Life Saving Victoria and a position that will perform a critical role in the evolution Training in the organisation.

Nick's primary role will be to provide support for the Trainer & Assessor network by facilitating professional development, workshops and general support on the needs of the Trainers & Assessors.

Nick's background has been primarily in education, however Nick has experience in training through previous employment in the Aquatics Industry and also in his role as head coach of the Australian U21 women's Lacrosse team.

Nick is very much looking forward to the challenge and is already busy working on initiatives to improve Trainer & Assessor courses, T & A recognition and rewards and improved communication channels.

Nick will be out and about introducing himself over the coming months so please make him feel welcome.

In the meantime Nick would be happy to hear your suggestions or feedback and can be contacted at nick.bugeja@lifesavingvictoria.com.au or on 9676 6978.
