Date: 7 August 2007

Subject: Victorian Review of the Surf Lifesaving Training Manual

Action: Submissions and expressions of interest due by Friday 10th August 2007

Surf Life Saving Australia has announced the review of the Surf Life Saving Training Manual 32 Edition. It is planned to have the 33rd edition of the Manual ready for the 2008/2009 Lifesaving Season.

Clubs and Individuals were asked by the SLSA Circular 67-06/07 to forward feedback by the 1st of July. In Victoria this has been extended to Friday the 10th of August.

Submissions in the form of feedback are sought in relation to the;

- content of the 32nd Edition
- related Award Structure
- style of the publication
- text format and layout
- photographs contained within the 32nd Edition

(please include scientific evidence to support your submission)

All submissions should be made in writing to and sent via email or post to Rob O'Brien (rob.obrien@lifesavingvictoria.com.au)

Expressions of interest are also being sought for individuals interested in participating in the review panel. This panel will review the submissions received in Victoria and make further comment to complete the state submission to the national review committee.

Potential Panel Members must be available to meet from 9am – 6pm on Saturday the 18th of August 2007 at LSV and should submit their expression of interest to rob.obrien@lifesavingvictoria.com.au. Panel members will be selected by the Director of Training and Assessment and the Development Officer – RTO compliance and Resources based on the potential input they can provide and the need to ensure a cross section the membership is consulted.
