Club Presidents
Experienced Lifeguards
District Officers
Regional Officers
Trainers & Assessors

Cc:

From: Jacqui Hewitt – State Patrol Service Efficiency Officer
Mark Scott – Director, Lifesaving Operations

Date: 9 November 2007

Subject: Call for interested Volunteer personnel to audit Clubs in the Patrol Audit and Patrol Competition

Action:

Life Saving Victoria needs capable and fair volunteers to audit Club patrols around Victoria in the audit and patrol competition for the Patrol Season 2008. There are IRB motors to be won by those exceptional Clubs who patrol at a very high standard.

Minimum Skills required:

Preferably, you will be an experienced lifesaver holding BM, ARC or IRBD. You will have a keen interest in maintaining LSV patrolling standards and would like to see how other Clubs are maintaining standards in Victoria. Those personnel who have helped in previous years are keenly welcomed!

Training session:

A training session will be run one evening for Volunteer Personnel at Life Saving Victoria Headquarters in Port Melbourne.
