Cc: District Officers

From: LSV Honours and Awards Committee

Date: 5 December 2007

Subject: 2007 Graeme Long Memorial Medal – Volunteer of the Year

Action: Closing date for applications is Friday 8 February 2008

Please be advised that the LSV Honours and Awards Committee are now seeking applications for the Graeme Long Memorial Medal.

This award was first presented in 1999 and perpetuates the memory of Graeme Long and his volunteer contributions to lifesaving. This award is given to the nominee considered by the Honours and Awards Committee and endorsed by the Board of Directors as the '2007 LSV Volunteer of the Year'.

All nominees for the Graeme Long Memorial Medal must be a financial member of a club. The award is judged on the nominee's performance for the 12 months from 1 January 2007 to December 2007.

- Graeme Long Memorial Medal application form is attached.

Clubs should note that as in previous years, the Graeme Long Memorial Medal winner will be Victoria's representative in the SLSA DHL Volunteer of the Year Award and will be invited by SLSA to attend the 2008 Australian Titles at Scarborough Beach, Western Australia, 1 – 6 April 2008.

The application form, which must be signed by the Club President and supporting documentation are to be returned to:
